Author's Notes:
Just a short, cute story that came to me the other night :)

The plane's sprung a leak.

That was Cliff's first thought when he felt a wet patch on his shoulder. But no, that didn't make sense. Planes didn't leak!

Cliff turned his head, smiling at what he saw. James had fallen asleep and was resting his head on Cliff's shoulder. He was dribbling; that was what had made the wet patch.

Then, James squirmed a little and whimpered. Cliff patted his back gently with one hand and wiped James' mouth with his opposite jacket sleeve.

"Shhh, it's OK" he murmured. "You're safe James".

James gave a contented sigh and relaxed again.
